“ Mom, Happy Easter in Heaven. It's our first Holiday without you. I'm trying... I'm trying to push through and make it normal for the kids, but this is hard. I had a dream the other day, and the conversation we had gave me peace. But, no matter how much peace I might have, my best friend is still gone and it hurts. I miss you, every moment or every day. I have cried everyday since, and I'm usually the strong one. Happy Easter Mom. I Love You Always & Forever, and will Miss You Always. Love, Jackie

“ Aunt Cece was one of the sweetest people I knew. She was always so kind and caring. If she knew you and loved you, she told you. "Love you babe" may you rest in peace. You are missed. ❤️

“ Mom was always kind and caring, having started the moment right after I stepped my foot onto the Buffalo airport. She used to kid me by saying "I 18" and tease me about my Budweiser bag I was carrying. She was my adopted, second U.S. mom. She taught me how to drive, made delicious goulash (lol), and gave me a big hug all the time. I am glad that she made it to Dayton for our wedding. I will miss her laugh, smile, and kindness. Love you, mom.
